II. Jurisdiction.

The jurisdiction of the court is invoked pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §112 except for the jurisdiction of that location whose address is listed in an affirmation by Boris Magid.

III. Statement of Claim.

Bruce Sontag, the landlord's lawyer brings me to housing court, 141 Livingston St. Brooklyn N.Y. 11201, on 5/14/02 over a rent dispute. The case is adjourned 5 times because the lawyer can't account for money I owe.

During this time in housing court #070328/02 and on 7/22/02, my lawyer Robert Rosenblatt advises an Ad Litum represent me, I refuse so it's my lawyer who states I'm incompetent. The judge disagrees.

My lawyer then lies about the judge as shown in item 16C of a 4/1/03 court evaluator's report.

A psychiatrist's affirmation is signed 1/28/02, before I was summoned to housing court and this shows that the psychiatrist, Boris Magid was eager to find me incompetent. On 9/11/02, the psychiatrist visited me in my home and affirms that I don't know how to manage rent payments. The case was still in housing court.

The landlord's lawyer writes that I didn't pay a final judgement in a letter of 10/24/02 signed, dated and notarized by the lawyer. A receipt of 10/15/02 signed, dated and stamped by a housing agent shows otherwise.

Yvonne Lewis, a judge at 360 Adams St. Brooklyn N.Y. 11201 crosses out an item in a stipulation after I signed it. Although the item was the reason why I signed it and although it was turned into a court order on 12/2/03, I claim I shouldn't have been summoned to guardianship court, #100026/03 to begin with. (Dismissed 3/10/10).

As I felt threatend in this case by government intrusion into my personal life, I let my Niece Lilla Allocca and Cousin Lorraine Guzzo hold my money for safe keeping on 2/19/03. They decided to embezzle most of it. Also, my SS and SSI benefits were seized from my bank account by a guardian on 7/3/07. Also, my guardianship case was adjourned 21 times from 6/11/05 to 6/16/07 resulting in a continued depletion of my resources.

IV. Remedy.

To sue all those named as defendants for money lost and for debts incurred.
